It has been my privilege to know and work with Mark Whittaker for ten years. He was the director of the local ministry of Youth For Christ when I met him. Soon after that he and I put together about fifteen local networks of youth ministers. This became known as the Youth Outreach Network. Under Mark's leadership this ministry has been greatly blessed.

Mark has a strong passion and commitment to evangelize all youth of the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex. He knows youth ministries across America and is able to guide youth ministers to many helpful resources.

He has faced challenges in ways that glorify God. One of these is the chronic illness of his precious wife, Teri. Mark has responded to this challenge with great courage and trust in God as a faithful husband and a loving father of three children.

Mark is a faithful servant of Christ.

Sincerely in Christ,

Jim Mulkey, Facilitator of HOPE 2000, the Dallas/Ft. Worth expression of Mission America.

"I strongly support the goals of Mission America, and pray that God will use it to bring a new wave of evangelism and spiritual renewal to our nation and our world."

BILLY GRAHAM

"If enough of us really take seriously the prayer of the Lord Jesus—that we may be as one—and if enough of us are willing to lose our identity and let Christ be honored and praised, the miracle will happen."
